

NOW ACCEPTING NOMINATIONS & APPLICATIONS 2017-2018 EXECUTIVE FORUM

It's lonely at the top.

As a leader, your responsibility has most likely grown, but your circle of peers—people to whom you can relate—is smaller.

That's why Leadership Lynchburg has created the Executive Forum.

Do you want to form confidential brain trusts with other high-level managers and executives through a certified executive coach? Could you further develop your leadership skills, identify new goals, and solve challenges you may not otherwise feel comfortable discussing?

Themes:

Focus • Leadership • Communication
Innovation • Measurement

Details:

- Professionally-facilitated, four-hour sessions over eight months
- Cohort of ten or fewer
- Personalized to support your goals
- High-impact guest speakers
- Confidentiality for your toughest, most sensitive issues
- Unbiased support

Investment (all inclusive):

- $3,750 business sector
- $2,500 public sector
- $2,500 non-profits and small businesses with fewer 25 employees
- $1,500 non profits with fewer than 15 employees
- Includes leadership assessment, refreshments each session and all materials/curriculum.

For information on the cohort to begin Fall 2017 and to express interest in applying,

please visit www.leadershiplynchburg.com

Contact: Christine Kennedy, Executive Vice President,
Leadership & Life Purpose Coach
Lynchburg Regional Business Alliance
434-845-5968 ext. 12

Sponsored By

